Petersburg and Baltimore Athletics Tie in Superb Pitchers' Battle.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., August 15.—Petersburg played the Baltimore Athletics team in a standard ball game, and considering the fact that the game was played on a very wet, muddy diamond, it was the most exciting and hotly contested game that has been played in Petersburg this season. Twice Petersburg had a man on the third sack with a good show for a run, but quick and timely fielding by the visitors prevented the runner from crossing the home plate. As for the visitors, they did not succeed in getting a runner beyond the second sack. Fitzpatrick, for the home team, and Abbott, for the visitors, pitched good ball. On the single being made off Fitzpatrick, and two-bagger and three singles off Abbott. The game was called at the end of the ninth on account of darkness.

SPORTING QUERIES

Reporting Editor, Times-Dispatch:
Sir—If A bets B that he can pick the three winning teams and two of them win and one loses, does A win the bet?

Answer: A loses because he does not pick the three winning teams, and since provision was made to cover the case of a tie game.

Reporting Editor, Times-Dispatch:
Sir—I noticed by one of the Richmond papers a few days ago that Mr. C. O. Long, the professional ball player, will try the examination of second lieutenant in the United States Navy. Please inform me how that is if he has never attended a naval training school. I am under the impression that only those graduating from the United States Naval School (Annapolis, Md.) are commissioned as regular officers of the navy. Please answer this in your Query Column Sunday.

Answer: You are entirely correct. No man can enter the navy as a commissioned officer without being a graduate of the Naval Academy. There is no such office as lieutenant in the navy.

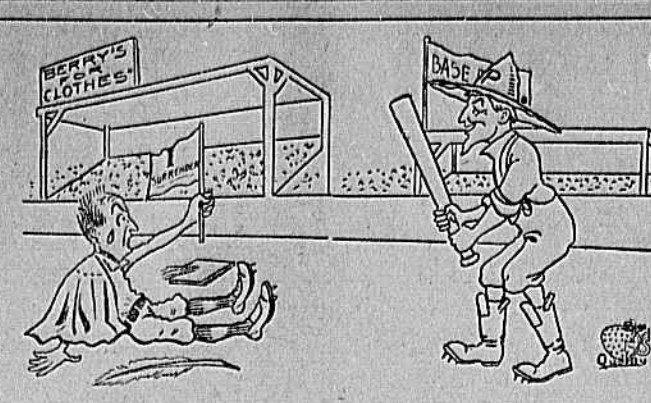

Cremos Win.
Yesterday the Cremos defeated the American Beauties 12 to 6. The features of the game were Warner's strong play on first and the batting of Carr and Warner.

AMERICAN COUNTRY CLUB OF VIRGINIA GROWS

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
LOUISIANA, August 15.—The gentlemen of Philadelphia, played splendidly today against the Maryland team, and were rewarded by a signal victory by a margin of 25 runs. The game was saw several times during the day, and while Fane and Crawford were as good as all indications pointed to an Englishman entering victorious. After lunch, however, H. V. Hordern and J. B. King carried everything before them, and the entire side was out for 221 runs.

When play was resumed this morning, the overnight, not much had changed. The Philadelphia team, which had been playing for several days, and while Fane and Crawford were as good as all indications pointed to an Englishman entering victorious. After lunch, however, H. V. The club effected a formal organization on Wednesday night, when the constitution and by-laws were formally adopted by the members. Most of the funds are already in hand, and the club will soon be begun on the new club building at the Rio Vista site, which has been acquired by the organization.

The prospects of the club are very bright, and it will not be long before a handsome new and modernly equipped house will shelter the organization.
